Discuss IT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

People keep protesting Trump and making more problems with these disagreements. We need to accept this new president and everything he will do to make this country better. These issues are coming up because theres actually something being done to fix these problems. We say that Trump is creating a separation but really we are the ones creating a split, we need to come together. People voted for him because they want a change in immigration and he's doing what he promised in the election. So there should be no say about it. Despite everyone's views we need to stop this and try to make this term better than what people think might come of the presidency.
